SUCCESSFUL SALES AND ROBUST CROWDS OF BUYERS AT ANNUAL NEW YORK CITY JEWELRY & WATCH SHOW OCTOBER 25 – 28, 2019 • METROPOLITAN PAVILION

Palm Beach Show Group's premium exhibition of distinctive antique jewelry and time pieces ended with high attendance and large sales.

(New York, NY – November 1, 2019) - The Palm Beach Show Group is proud to report phenomenal exhibitor sales and an overwhelming turnout of buyers at the 2019 New York City Jewelry & Watch Show. The Show came to a close on Monday at the Metropolitan Pavilion hosting over 100 distinguished dealers throughout the weekend of October 25-28, 2019.

Serious retail and trade buyers lined the entrance of the Metropolitan Pavilion corridor on opening day eager to purchase from exhibitors showcasing an array of antique and estate jewelry, vintage pieces, modern collections and fine watches. Collections represented all eras of jewelry history including highly sought-after brands such as Cartier, Tiffany & Co., David Webb, Harry Winston, Van Cleef & Arpels and Patek Philippe.

Extraordinary and rare pieces sold across the board including museum-worthy necklace sets and Art Nouveau tiaras to pristine timepieces and signed jewelry from elegant global brands.

Gus David of Camilla Dietz Bergeron commented, "The mood was upbeat, and I am happy to share that we sold numerous pieces of signed jewelry; the names that seem to still lead the pack are Van Cleef & Arpels and Cartier."

Rosaria of R&A International reported, "I sold a bit of everything at the show; Pomellato necklace, old cushion ring, fire opal earring, coral pendant, platinum jewelry and vintage watches."

"We sold a fair amount; one specific item was a 5ct old mine cushion gia certified. We have a lot of privates interested in our old mine cushions cuts and old Europeans cuts from the show," said new exhibitor Steven Galapo Diamonds.

The Show welcomed over 20 new exhibitors with representation from over 27 different countries offering a unique selection of merchandise to both trade and retail shoppers contributing to the show's consistent success.

"Over the last four years, the New York City Jewelry & Watch Show has set a standard in the industry – steadily raising the bar year after year. With high expectations from past participating dealers and buyers, the 2019 show met the demands of the ever changing and challenging marketing and brought a bigger and better jewelry event to downtown Manhattan's Metropolitan Pavilion," said Scott Diamant, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Palm Beach Show Group.

Owned and produced by the Palm Beach Show Group, the New York City Jewelry & Watch Show is designed to meet the needs of jewelers and collectors alike. With a commitment to create an environment to foster these relationships, the Palm Beach Show Group also sees New York City as an important world class market where prominent jewelers are exposed to a high-end buying public in addition to the trade industry audience.

With continuous yearly growth in attendance, exhibitors and sales, the 2020 show is expected to be the biggest show yet.

Presented by the Palm Beach Show Group, the New York City Jewelry & Watch Show will return in 2020 from October 23-26 at the Metropolitan Pavilion, 125 West 18th Street New York, NY 10011. For additional information about the New York City Jewelry & Watch Show, please visit www.NYCJAWS.com.
