commitment to quality, and its unique position at the intersection of history, artistry, and luxury.

From iconic estate jewels to innovative contemporary creations, this year's show floor will be filled with exceptional finds. Below are some exhibitor highlights and must-see items:

Jack Weir and Sons, Beverly Hills CA

Edwardian GIA 5.04 carat old mine cut diamond 18k yellow gold engagement ring

A rare Edwardian-era treasure, this antique engagement ring centers a captivating 5.04 carat old mine cut diamond, GIA-certified with a warm K color and I1 clarity. Sixteen old mine cut accent diamonds, totaling approximately 0.60 carats, encircle the center stone in a delicate halo. Expertly crafted in 18k yellow gold and platinum, the setting showcases intricate milgrain detailing and graceful proportions characteristic of early 20th-century design. Circa 1910s. Ring size 6.5.
