ABOUT: 11th ANNUAL NEW YORK CITY JEWELRY & WATCH SHOW

The New York City Jewelry & Watch Show returns for its 11th edition this fall, continuing its tradition as one of the East Coast's premier destinations for fine jewelry, luxury watches, and exceptional emerging jewelry designers. Taking place October 22–25, 2026, at the Metropolitan Pavilion in Chelsea, Manhattan, the show will welcome an elite roster of exhibitors from around the world presenting an extraordinary selection of antique and estate jewelry, vintage timepieces, rare gemstones, and contemporary collections.

Attendees will have the opportunity to discover signed pieces from renowned houses including Cartier, Tiffany & Co., Van Cleef & Arpels, Patek Philippe, David Webb, and many others. The event also features a curated designer collective section showcasing original creations from emerging and established jewelry designers, adding a fresh perspective alongside the industry's most respected dealers.

As both a consumer-facing event and an important trade marketplace, the show attracts collectors, jewelry enthusiasts, retailers, designers, stylists, and watch aficionados seeking rare finds and one-of-a-kind treasures. Whether searching for an important acquisition, a unique gift, or inspiration from the world's finest jewelers, the New York City Jewelry & Watch Show offers an unmatched experience in the heart of Manhattan.
